Explore valuable accountancy insights, information and updates to enhance your practice

Welcome to the February edition of the IRIS Insider! We hope the self-assessment deadline wasn't too stressful for you and you managed to submit them all on time.

As the Official Supporters of Accountants & Bookkeepers we're here to support you all year round, even outside of busy season. We're here to make every year as easy and as stress-free as possible for you, and this year we're offering a free personalised business health check; our 'Practice MOT', where we go under the bonnet of your firm to identify potential improvements, outline your goals and assess your progress.

We hope you enjoy this month's edition filled with tips, free webinars and expert industry insights. So, grab yourself a cuppa and have a read!

Busy season: How the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act impacts AML

The "most significant change" in the history of Companies House has recently been heralded following the introduction of the new Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act (ECCTA).

This Act marks a crucial step towards empowering Companies House and addressing the issue of businesses being established under fictitious identities, helping enhance transparency within UK companies and legal entities.

So, what's the impact and how does it impact key legislation such as AML?
