

September 2024

Explore valuable accountancy insights, information and updates to enhance your practice

Welcome to the September edition of the IRIS Insider, we hope you've made the most of your summer despite the weather.

Our customers are the heart of IRIS, and we want to make sure you are getting the help and support you need. We know things don't always go smoothly and we acknowledge that it is sometimes very challenging for you to navigate your journey with technology on the top of all your other responsibilities. We want you to know that we are with you every step of the way. We take our partnership with our customers seriously and we are here to support you in any way we can.

Throughout this newsletter you will find useful links to blogs, webinars and articles that can help you to get the most out of IRIS as a valued customer.

Free library of webinars for IRIS customers

We have so many great webinars available for you to watch at your leisure. From MTD, Onboarding and IRIS Docs webinars to IRIS Elements, IT strategies and getting you prepared for busy season, we've got all bases covered! Not only that, but this month also we have an upcoming webinar around how to experience the best of both world without compromise, combining both our cloud and desktop solutions.

We're launching a masterclass series to ensure you are getting most out of your existing IRIS solution

Our first masterclass of the series is live next week on Thursday 12 September. This masterclass will delve into how to make tax season less taxing. Our expert Andrew Parker will demonstrate how you can make the most of your IRIS software, providing you with lots of tips and tricks you didn't know existed. It's all about avoiding those extra hours at evenings, weekends and during the Christmas break. As a valued customer we want to make sure you're continually getting the most out of the IRIS software that you use. It's not one to be missed!

Keep an eye out for future invitations as there will be a different masterclass live every month!

IRIS Elements Central Business Review

In order to help you navigate your way through data and various metrics, we have designed IRIS Elements Central Business Review. It displays your business clients KPI's in a convenient dashboard providing a health check of their financial performance. It provides near real-time data, enabling trend identification and insight in a centralised system removing the need to review multiple products or for reports spreadsheets giving you a solid foundation for advisory conversations.

As an IRIS customer you can take advantage of joining the early adopter program free of charge.

Accountants: how outsourcing can give you that 'stress-free summer' feeling... even when autumn arrives!

As autumn appears on the horizon, wouldn't it be nice to keep some of that stress-free summer magic?

What if you could have access to an extra pair of hands that you have always needed to support you and your team?

Take a look at our blog post on outsourcing and see how it can help take the stress away from accountants. From handling volume-heavy, repetitive tasks to filling gaps in expertise, it's a powerful, flexible solution.

So, what difference can it make to YOUR practice?

If you are short on time and you are already dreading how you are going to cope during the upcoming tax season, talk to us, we can help.
